

Travel Bestie Contract

(Legally binding in the court of bestie law)

Clause 1: Snack Sovereignty

I solemnly swear not to steal your snacks without permission (unless it's something with extra cheese, then it's free game).

Clause 2: Alarm Clock Etiquette

The Pillow Princess shall not bully the Sunrise Seeker, and vice versa. Snoozes are sacred.

Clause 3: Playlist Peace Treaty

If the song request fight gets violent, we agree to surrender to the FlixBus Wi-Fi and make a shared playlist queue.

Clause 4: Navigation Neutrality

The human Google Maps (you know who you are) promises not to roast the Directionally Challenged one (also, you know who you are).

Clause 5: Emergency Clause

In case of hangry attacks, both parties agree: food > feelings.

Clause 6: The Golden Rule

If travel drama escalates... we Ride or Bye. Breaking the law results in the outlaw paying the Flix ride home for both.
